

WordBuild Foundations Level 2 Contents

Affix	Meaning
dis	not; apart
dis + s	he, she, or it does not (whatever) er (agent) + doubling	a person or device that does – with doubling ed (adjective)	having been, or made to become un + ed	not having been, or not made to become ly (adverb)	how or in what way something is done less + ly	how or in what way something is done without y (adjective)	tending to have or be like y to i + ness	the quality of tending to have or be like – with change y to i ly (adjective)	like in appearance, manner, or nature ship	position, status, or skill y to i + ly	like how or in what way something is done mis	badly or wrong
some	the same as or like something some + ness	the condition or quality of being the same as or like something ity	condition or quality pre	at a time before or in front of less + ness	condition or quality of being without ly to li + ness	the condition or quality of being like – with change y to i ist	an expert or a person who does, performs, or is known by ment	process, action, or result ion	result or process ive	tending or likely to ive + ly	like tending or likely to ful	having a lot ful + ness	the quality or condition of tending to do or have a lot of ize	to cause to become or to cause to be like ate	to cause to become or to act on in a certain way ous	full of or being like something pro	for or forward ic	like or similar to con	together; with con (assimilated)	together; with – spelled com, co, cor, or col ad (assimilated)	to or toward – spelled a, ac, af, ag, al, an, ap, ar, as, or at in (not) (assimilated)	not – spelled il, im, or ir in (in) (assimilated)	in or into – spelled en, em, or im

